5.1.2e

Graag kort ter info:

- ▽Gisterenavond Olie & Gas diner bijgewoond georganiseerd door 5.1.2a met 5.1.2a ambassadeur en vertegenwoordigers van Shell en Equinor. Doel was om eerdere traditie Shell en Equinor en betrokken ambassadeurs bijeen te brengen, weer nieuw leven in te blazen. Geen inhoudelijke agenda, noch een plenaire discussie. Dus in die zin weinig inhoudelijk terug te koppelen. Shell en Equinor hielden kaarten voor de borst, maar wel goede sfeer en daarmee gelegenheid met elkaar kennis te maken. Ook gegeven aantal nieuwe gezichten.
- ▽Betrof ook eerste bezoek van nieuwe Vicepresident Shell, Maarten Garvelink aan Tanzania. Hij vertelde me dat Shell ochtend ervoor sprak met TZ Minister van Energie, Kalemani in Dodoma. Ook spraken Shell en Equinor deze week gezamenlijk met PS energie. Beide goede gesprekken. Minister leek met verkiezingen in aantocht nu echt te willen bewegen (verkiezingen waarin groeicijfers steeds belangrijker worden. Volgens de centrale bank zou LNG-project BNP-groei met 2 procent verhogen.....).
- ▽Equinor sprak ook nog onlangs met Kabudi. 5.1.2c bleken belangrijkste struikelblokken in dat gesprek.
- 5.1.2a ambassadeur beloofde volgende diner te hosten. Maarten Garvelink tot slot uitgenodigd ambassade te zoeken mocht dat passen in zijn reisschema (hij keert zaterdag terug naar NL). volledigheidshalve de namen van alle aanwezigen.

Groet,

Hi [redacted] 5.1.2e

All clear, thxs very much, our lips are sealed.

The more because the minister cancelled the meeting for tomorrow, he has to go back to Dodoma to meet with the president. Will keep you posted on the new meeting.

Fyi

1. Vice president Hafez Ghanem (also exec director Eastern And Southern Africa) of the World Bank spoke today with the president. WB has been asked to step up activities in Tanzania, most probable new fields are private sector development and budget support for government. Group of ambassadors spoke yesterday with him, Ghanem seems to be convinced of the need to support the new outward looking policy of the government.

2 last weekend's article in the East african about the IMF raising the red flag over economic situation of Tanzania does not reflect the vision of the IMF, they were not invited to comment and they have a more optimistic view of the situation. Moreover The figures in the article do not support the headline.

Kind regards,

One nuance – it would be helpful if the meeting [redacted] 5.1.1c was kept confidential so it would be appreciated if this was not shared including in the meeting.

We can provide a download following the session, but keeping it close for now would be our request.

00002/any thanks again.

Thanks, 5.1.2e

Many thanks for reaching out.

A few points:

5.1.1c

Please feel free to convey that Shell appreciated the meeting on 24 Sept. with the Minister of Energy (Equinor attended as well). We have communicated to our headquarters that the Minister set an early positive tone and we remain optimistic that we can work with him and his team to develop a strong proposal that can put forward the best case for investment (I have been quite impressed!).

We recognize that the journey to FID takes years and much work and the only way to progress is to do so together. I am currently in The Hague, but pleased to chat by phone if helpful.

Have a great meeting.

Hi 5.1.2e

Will have a meeting with the new minister for Energy this Wednesday. Do you have any additional information / comments since our meeting in August?

Kind regards,

5.1.2e
