Dear [redacted] 10.2.e,

~

Many thanks for the update on location of the items.

~

I look forward to receiving the loan agreement once you have an English version (very sadly my Dutch isn't great! )

Dear [redacted] 10.2.e,

~

As promised this email serves to let you know that the artefacts have arrived at Museum Kaap Skil safely. I was hoping to provide you with a conservation report, in accordance with the loan agreement; unfortunately I have only received one in Dutch. I have asked the conservator to provide us one in English.

Yes, this sounds like a good solution. I have updated the agreement to extend the loan to the end of Nov 2021, to allow a full year display and a month to plan the return. Will this work your end?

~

I have also updated the additional notes at the end.

If it looks agreeable please sign and return a copy to me.

This summer marks the start of a new era for HMS Warrior. Step back in time to 1863, when the great ship set sail on a round Britain tour, showcasing to the people how public money had been spent on the biggest, fastest & most powerful ship on the seas. The new interpretation marks the culmination of a £4.2 million conservation project made possible by a £3.2 million grant from the National Lottery Heritage Fund.

Dear [redacted],

~

We hope this email finds you well. We have been in touch with you regarding the finds of the HMS Apollo that have been taken up by divers because they found them unprotected on the seabed. Although understandable, this is not the right procedure and therefore we have contacted you and paid for the conservation of the objects prior to their transportation to your museum. According to the conservators, the process takes a bit more time than initially thought. Therefore, also our agreement with the local museum to have the objects presented to the public prior to their transport to England lies under pressure. We therefore would like to propose that as soon as the objects come out of conservation (now estimated for Fall 2021) they will be transferred to the Kaapskijl Museum where they stay for maximum of one year before they will be sent to you.

We believe this is the most honest solution, but would like to know your opinion about this.

Best greetings, also on behalf of [redacted]

Yes, a longer loan term has been agreed. When you have a definite date let me know and I'll update the Loan Agreement and re send. I will also make a note that the cost of returning the items can be discussed nearer the time, but that RCE will not be able to guarantee covering the costs at this time on the agreement.

Dear 10...

10-1-2022

We will sort the loan term out. We have to get back to the conservators and then the museum on Texel. I guess they will probably want the objects for summer 2022. That means that they will be ready for transport around October 2022. However, we have to check this to make it definite. I hope this is okay for you, but in the meantime you can communicate this date to your managers.

Cheers, 10.2.e

Hi 10.2.e

~

Thanks for clarifying these points. I have raised the issue of funding the return of the items with my managers to get their response. I have also asked for their approval on a longer loan term. Do you know what date the items will finish the resaturation process and be ready for display? And how long will you want to display them for?

Dear 10...

~

Hope you're doing well. In response to the two remaining questions from your side:

~

1. RCE to confirm that they will fund the cost of returning the items to NMRN specifications

The International Programme for Maritime Heritage will end this year. We have no certainty concerning our financial capacity beyond that date, so unfortunately we can't make any promises.

~

2. RCE to supply NMRN with all conservation reports for the items

10-1-2022

~

Yes, we took care of the conservation costs and the closing report will be written in English.

~

In addition, we might have to amend the dates as given in the loan agreement, as we received word that restoration of the four object takes up to seven months.

~

Kind regards,

Dear 10.2.e

~

I have just picked up an error/typo in the value added to the form. I have had the items valued by an auction house who state a probable sale price around £1,000 NOT £10,000. My apologies for that! That was my error.

I have amended and reattach an up dated version.

Dear 10...

~

Hope you are doing well. Concerning the loan agreement, you gave us three points to answer, right now I will give you the answer to #1 as given to me by our senior consultant movable heritage:

10-1-2022

1. RCE to confirm how and who will insure the items for the attached value, and provide evidence

Response: We do not fully understand your request to have the items insured. How do you want to determine the financial value of the objects? Such a financial value would be arbitrary in all cases, wouldn't it? If the objects are lost as a result of a calamity and they are insured, what do you want with the insurance amount to be paid out? The unique items will not get back with that money. We suggest that you do not require us to take out insurance for loss or total loss and only hold us liable for any repairable damage. The RCE (in this case the Dutch State) is an active advocate of loans based on confidence in the professionalism of lender and borrower.

4. Update HMS Apollo

Bruikleen artefacten

De bruikleenovereenkomst wordt opgesteld en binnenkort ondertekend. De artefacten worden momenteel geconserveerd, de verwachting is dat het in november 2021 is afgerond. Vervolgens wordt het aan Kaap Skil in bruikleen gegeven tot eind 2022. De bruikleenovereenkomst is inmiddels ondertekend.

Beste 10.2.e
 We zullen de volgende week het transport regelen met 10.2.e van Kaap Skil en u op de hoogte houden.

Met vriendelijke groet,

Beste 10.2.e

~

Dank voor het bericht. De objecten worden voor een expositie in sub-buikleen gegeven aan museum Kaap Skil op Texel. Het is van belang zo min mogelijk transportmomenten te hebben; de objecten kunnen dus rechtstreeks van Heerlen naar Texel.

~

Conservator aldaar is 10.2.e, in dit bericht in CC maar hij is jullie welbekend. Jullie kunnen het transport onderling afstemmen op de wensen van Kaap Skil. Houd RCE hierbij wel in CC zodat wij het NMRN kunnen berichten zodra de objecten op Texel zijn gearriveerd.

~

Kosten voor het transport worden door RCE betaald. Een offerte hiervoor kan naar mij.

Geachte 10.2.e

Het exclusieve vriesdrogen van de objecten van de HMS Apollo is voorspoedig gegaan. We zullen deze objecten nu afwerken en de conserveringsrapporten met foto's opstellen.~

We zouden volgende week donderdag (18 november) deze objecten kunnen afleveren. Mijn vraag is of dat bij het Provinciaal Depot in Castricum moet zijn of bij de RCE in Amersfoort?

Met vriendelijke groet,

Geachte 10.2.e

Door een misverstand in onze interne planning zijn de voorwerpen van het scheepswrak HMS Apollo niet in de vriesdroog-sessie terecht gekomen die nu klaar is. Het spijt ons dat de planning niet gehaald is en dat u nu problemen ondervindt.

~

De volgende sessie om te vriesdrogen met een volle cilinder zou pas in januari 2022 klaar zijn.

We kunnen de benodigde tijd voor het vriesdrogen van de voorwerpen van het scheepswrak echter verkorten door deze exclusief te vriesdrogen, zonder andere voorwerpen erbij.

Het betreft namelijk twee leren patroontassen en twee zwaardschedes van leer. Bovendien zijn de houten blokken die in de patroontassen zitten voorzien van een serie gaten voor patronen, waardoor deze sneller kunnen drogen.

We zullen daarom vandaag al starten met het vriesdrogen van deze voorwerpen. Vervolgens monitoren we het proces en zullen we over enkele weken aangeven hoe het drogen verloopt.

Met vriendelijke groet,

10.2.e

Restaura heeft toegezegd een Engelstalig rapport voor het NMRN te schrijven, dat lijkt niet gebeurd. Dus ik mail ze nog.
