This is an aerial photograph of a rural landscape with several rectangular agricultural fields. Two specific fields are highlighted with blue outlines and white circular markers. Each marker is connected to a black text box containing the field's area and perimeter. The fields are separated by thin lines, likely ditches or roads. A red line runs diagonally across the upper right portion of the image. A blue line runs along the bottom left. A small blue hatched area is visible in the top left corner. The text 'Holland, Sticht en Voorburg west' is written in green across the middle of the image. Two parcel numbers are visible: '2340_3302' on the right edge and '2340_3305' at the bottom left.
